

remainder of all thus enrolled, and not thus found to be exempt, shall constitute the militia of the State, and such clerk shall transmit a copy of such corrected roll to the adjutant general and the commanding officer of each organization in the national guard. The heads of the fire and police departments in each city or town shall, whenever an enrollment is ordered, file in the office of the clerk above named a certified list of the names of all persons in their command or departments.

4. All persons shall, upon the application of any person making such enrollment, give the name of and all other proper information concerning any person within their knowledge liable to be enrolled, under penalty of $10 for every concealment or false information, or refusal to give the information requested, to be recovered with costs in the name of the State in any court or before any justice of the peace having criminal jurisdiction. The officer making the enrollment shall within ten days report all persons who shall fail or neglect to give information to the adjutant general.

1908, ch. 103, sec. 6.

5. The militia of the State shall be divided into two classes—the active and the reserve militia. The active militia shall consist of the organized and uniformed military forces of the State, which shall be known as the Maryland national guard; the reserve militia shall consist of all those liable to services in the militia, but not serving in the national guard.

1908, ch. 103, sec. 7.

6. The governor of the State, by virtue of his office, shall be the commander-in-chief of the militia of the State, except as of such portions as may at times be in the service of the United States. No armed military force from another State, territory or district shall be permitted to enter the State for the purpose of doing military duty therein, without the permission of the governor, unless such force is part of the United States army or is actually under the authority of the United States.

1908, ch. 103, sec. 8.

7. The staff of the governor shall consist of one adjutant general, who shall also perform the duties of quartermaster general, and who shall also be chief of staff, who shall have the rank of brigadier general, whose salary shall be two thousand dollars per annum, and the said sum is hereby appropriated for that purpose annually, and the comptroller is directed to draw his warrant on the treasurer, who is hereby directed to pay the same in equal monthly instalments; and a chief of ordnance, an inspector general, a surgeon general, a judge advocate general, all of whom shall have the rank of brigadier general, shall be appointed by the governor; and the governor is hereby empowered to
